

THE GREAT RAILWAY SOLD AT PUBLIC AUCTION. PRICE $6,000,000.

Ex-Governor Morgan Buys the Property for the New Management.

The Erie Railway and all the property owned by the company was sold as auction yesterday for $6,000,000. Ex-Governor Morgan, Harry Wallis and J. L. Wallis were the purchasers in trust for the new company, which is represented by a jury of the stockholders under the new administration of reform.

At half-past six o'clock in the morning another session of the Supreme Court, Chambers, to listen to the continuation before Judge Potter of the argument on behalf of John H. Brown and F. W. Isaacson, claiming to be preferred stockholders of the Erie Railway Company, to prevent the sale of the road under the decree of foreclosure.

Ex-Judge Gustock, who made the closing argument on the day previous, resumed and spoke for over an hour. Applying for the receiver and trustee of the mortgage he explained how the sale and reconstruction plan was brought about.

Mr. William Abbott, on behalf of the petitioners, his speech occupied the next hour, and was largely made up of a torrent of invective against Mr. Brown and the Erie Railway Company.

Just before noon, the time appointed for the sale to begin under Judge Potter's decision, Mr. Thomas K. Brown, general superintendent of the Erie railway, was with a number of his assistants, including the receiver, and the duty of carrying the inventory of the road and its properties to the auctioneer.

THE NEWELL SCANDAL.

THE SUMMING UP—MR. S. W. A. DRESS TO THE JURY FOR THE DEFENDANT.

After hearing some further evidence on the verdict in the Newell divorce case listened yesterday to Mr. Slater's summing up in behalf of the defence. His speech was quite funny. Now raising a question, now sinking his voice almost to the cooing of a dove, he was always ridiculing either "Fanny" Pollard, or calling the Boston millionaire, or "Sam" Boardman, and "Mammy" Wagner, the Boston boarding house keeper, or the gush and sentimentalism of Mrs. Newell's letters to Boardman.
